

Three dance programs...
Designed to entertain, engage and inform!

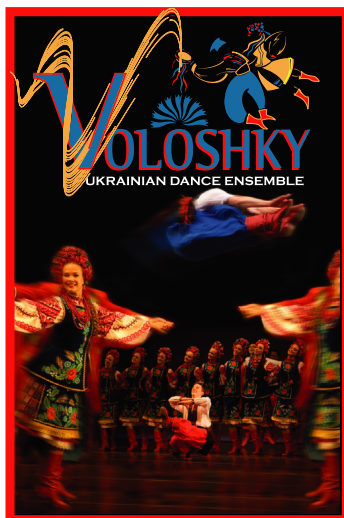

STEPPE: A CROSSOVER

A new evening-length performance that takes audiences on an exciting journey from folk to contemporary dance. Featuring over 35 dancers and musicians, the program underscores America's unique pluralistic heritage and multicultural inspirations. Featuring a new work by Mark Morris, experience the bold acrobatics of Ukrainian dance and ingenious artistry of the dancers set in motion by a live, virtuosic orchestra.

YATRAN

This unique program is based on the work of the Yatran Ukrainian Dance Company of Kirovohrad, Ukraine that toured in the U.S. in 1977. Together, original choreographer Anatolij Kryvochyzha (now age 87) and American choreographer Taras Lewyckyj theatrically recreated the highly acclaimed Yatran program. The result is an incredibly lively and exciting show featuring over 40 dancers and musicians which, like its original New York debut, "never for one twinge of a moment bores" (Clive Barnes, 1978).

STEPPE: A JOURNEY

This program combines the highest level of technique and presentation with the national character of Ukraine to create a spellbinding show of art and energy. The resulting style is bold and powerful, clearly native to Ukrainian dance, yet classical enough to be appreciated by all. Through dance, Voloshky portrays the past and present culture of the Ukrainian people. Featuring works by many world-renowned choreographers, audiences are exposed to traditional costumes, styles, and music representing various regions of Ukraine.

Touring support is available!

WWW.VOLOSHKY.COM
Tel.: 650 888 4747

STEPPE: Crossover was made possible by the New England Foundation for the Arts' National Dance Project, with lead funding from the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation and additional funding from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.

The Mark Morris commission has been supported by The Pew Center for Arts & Heritage.

Voloshky Ukrainian Dance Ensemble is included in the touring roster of Pennsylvania Performing Arts on Tour. Funding may be available to support touring engagements of the company. For more information on these grants visit www.pennpat.org.

PENNSYLVANIA PERFORMING ARTS ON TOUR